- Helped create a bedroom for a homeless child going to their first new space
- Supported children and teens in foster care
- Engaged and distracted young children at the bedside in a medical crisis with new toys and books
- Helped a young child with special needs.
- Helped teens through a mental health crisis
- Supported newborns with essentials in a maternity sheltering program

.....and so much more

Cooper Matthew Richards is a brave 3 year old boy who passed away on January 19, 2017 after a courageous battle with a rare disease, GM-1 Gangliosidosis. Following his passing the Richards Family took on the mantra of “Doing Cooper Work.” “Doing Cooper Work” is doing small things that make a big impact in the lives of courageous children and their families.

Coop’s Troop Foundation, Inc., is a 501 (c)(3) nonprofit charitable organization that has been founded to honor the life and legacy of Cooper.

donate a toy in memory of Cooper.”*

Spread the joy of the season

by helping some courageous children this holiday season
by “Doing Cooper Work.”

THERE ARE TWO WAYS TO DONATE

1. Join us at Cooper’s home, where you can drop off your gifts while enjoying a Christmas snack. This year we will be raffling off some amazing gift baskets to benefit the Coop’s Troop Foundation, Inc.
2. Not able to join us the day of the Toy Drive? You can still purchase a toy(s) through Amazon and have them delivered to Cooper’s home. By using Amazon Smile and choosing Coop’s Troop Foundation for your supporting charity at check out, you are doing twice the “Cooper Work” in one click.
